This is the Cambridge Key English Test. Paper 2: Listening. Test number one.
There are five parts to the test: Parts One, Two, Three, Four and Five.
We will now stop for a moment before we start the test. Please ask any questions now because you must not speak during the test.

[pause]

PART 1

Now look at the instructions for Part One.

[pause]

You will hear five short conversations. You will hear each conversation twice. There is one question for each conversation. For questions 1–5, put a tick under the right answer.
Here is an example:
How many people were at the meeting?

Girl: Were there many people at the meeting?
Boy: About thirty.
Girl: That's not many.
Boy: No, but more than last time.

[pause]

The answer is thirty, so there is a tick in box C.
Now we are ready to start. Look at question one.

[pause]

Question 1

One. How will Jill go to the football match?

Man: Are you going to drive to the football match, Jill?
Woman: I was going to, but I think parking will be difficult.
Man: That's what I thought. I'm going to walk, if you want to come with me.
Woman: OK then – that's cheaper than the bus, and it's always late anyway!

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

Question 2

Two. Who's going to visit the woman?

Woman: My sister's son is coming to stay with me tomorrow.
Man: Oh, that's nice. I met him a long time ago, when he was ten years old, didn't I?
Woman: Well, he's a father now, you know. But he's not bringing the baby with him.
Man: Oh, what a pity!

[pause]

Now listen again.

[pause]

Question 3 Three. What will Ruby do tonight?

Girl: Mum, Kate's just phoned. She wants me to go to the cinema this evening.
Woman: You can't go out, Ruby, if you haven't finished your school work.
Girl: But I have! And I've even cleaned my shoes.
Woman: That's all right then.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

Question 4 Four. How much did the woman's desk cost?

Man: I've just spent sixty pounds fifty on a new desk. Very expensive!
Woman: Well, I paid sixty-six pounds fifty for mine.
Man: I saw one for fifty-five pounds, but it wasn't very good.
Woman: A good desk costs more than fifty-five pounds.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

Question 5 Five. Where is the man's watch?

Man: I can't find my watch anywhere!
Woman: Did you take it off when you did the washing-up last night?
Man: I've looked in the kitchen and it's not there.
Woman: Here it is. You left it on the bath before you went to bed.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[pause]

This is the end of Part One.

[pause]

PART 2 Now look at Part Two.

[pause]

Listen to Lena talking to a friend about some restaurants. What is the problem with each one? For questions 6–10, write a letter, A–H, next to each restaurant. You will hear the conversation twice.

[pause]

Man: We've got to choose a restaurant for our class party next Saturday, Lena. What about the Rose Garden?
Woman: It'll be too cold, because all the tables are outside. I suppose Carla's Café is still closed.

Man: It's open again now but it's not big enough for all of our class. What do you think about Pizza Place?

Woman: The food's good, but they turn the lights so low, it's impossible to read the menu. What about the Curry House? The waiters are really friendly and everyone likes Indian food.

Man: I phoned them yesterday – they're fully booked on Saturday so there won't be any tables free.

Woman: Oh dear! I've just been to that new fish restaurant – Captain Crab. The music was so loud it was impossible to have a conversation.

Man: We'll want to talk, so that's no good. I suppose there's the Carlton Hotel.

Woman: Even a snack there costs a lot of money. We need a cheaper restaurant. Let's look in the newspaper . . .

[pause]

Now listen again.

[pause]

This is the end of Part Two.

[pause]

PART 3

Now look at Part Three.

[pause]

Listen to Helen talking to her friend Sam about being in a rock band. For questions 11–15, tick A, B or C. You will hear the conversation twice. Look at questions 11–15 now. You have 20 seconds.

[pause]

Now listen to the conversation.

Helen: Sam, you know I sing in Nick's band?

Sam: Mmm. He plays drums, doesn't he, Helen?

Helen: Yes. Well, we need another guitar player. How about you?

Sam: Sure!

Helen: Nick wants to hear you play first. Are you free on Wednesday?

Sam: Sorry. How about the next day or Friday?

Helen: Let's say Thursday – Nick's busy on Fridays.

Sam: Fine. Where and what time?

Helen: Come to my flat at seven thirty and we can walk to Nick's. The band uses his dad's garage because his bedroom's too small.

Sam: Should I bring anything? Food? Music?

Helen: Nick's mum makes us sandwiches and I always bring CDs. A warm sweater's a good idea, because it gets cold.

Sam: OK. When's the band's next concert? Aren't you playing at your brother's eighteenth birthday party?

Helen: Yes, and the college has booked us for the Saturday before that. We want to play at the Starlight Club, but they're fully booked at the moment.

Sam: Do you get paid for singing, Helen?

Helen: Of course – the band gets a hundred and ten pounds a night and we each have twenty-five pounds. Nick keeps ten pounds for things like advertisements.

Sam: Great.

Question 1

One. Where will the man and woman meet?

Man: I'll see you outside the cinema at six o'clock.
Woman: Why can't you meet me at the station? Or better still, the café? We're going to eat there before the film, aren't we?
Man: Yes, but we need to be at the cinema at six to buy the tickets. Then we can go to the café.
Woman: Oh OK.

[pause]

Question 2

Two. What's the date of Emma's birthday party?

Woman: Are you going to Emma's twentieth birthday party in June?
Man: Yes, I am. But it's in July actually.
Woman: Oh yes, of course. The twenty-first, isn't it?
Man: That's right. Her birthday is the day after mine. That's how I remember it.

Question 3 Three. Where is Norah's watch?

Girl: Have you seen my watch, Mum? I left it on the bookshelf.
Woman: I think it's in the kitchen, Norah, on the table.
Girl: That's your watch, Mum.
Woman: Oh, then I'm wearing yours! Sorry, I thought it was mine.

[pause]

Question 4 Four. How much is a ticket for tonight's match?

Woman: Are you going to the basketball match tonight?
Man: How much are the tickets?
Woman: Most weeks they're six pounds but it's a special price tonight – three pounds fifty – so do come.
Man: Right. I've got ten pounds here, so that's OK.

Question 5 Five. Which is the boy's brother?

Boy: Look, there's my brother over there, talking to his friends.
Girl: Oh, is he the one with dark hair?
Boy: My brother's got blond hair.
Girl: Oh yes, and he's got the same glasses as you. He looks nice.

Listen to Amy telling her father about her shopping trip. What did she and her friends buy? For questions 6–10, write a letter, A–H, next to each person. You will hear the conversation twice.

[pause]

Dad: Did you spend all your money, Amy?
Amy: No, Dad, but we all bought something. Look, I found the video I wanted.
Dad: Great!

Amy: We spent hours in the department store. Alison wants to take all her shoes on holiday, and her suitcase is too small. She bought a new one, but it took her ages!

Dad: Then what did you do?

Amy: We went with Helen to look at mobile phones. Her parents are getting her one for her birthday, so she bought a magazine that had information about all the different kinds to show them.

Dad: That's a good idea. Did Lucy find a present for her mum's birthday?

Amy: Yes, she looked at some beautiful shoes, but they were too expensive. But I think her mum will like the sweater she bought.

Dad: Oh good. What did Kerry buy?

Amy: A picture of our favourite band playing at a concert.

Dad: Is that the band you saw with Jo?

Amy: Yes. She got their new CD today. The music magazines say it's excellent.

Dad: You must all be tired.

Look at questions 11–15 now. You have 20 seconds.

[pause]

Now listen to the conversation.

Jamie: Hi, Mum! I've decided to move from my room at the university and into a flat with some friends.

Mum: Is the flat near the university, Jamie?

Jamie: About twenty minutes by bicycle and there are buses every half hour. But I'll walk through the park and have breakfast at a café there with my friends.

Mum: Will the flat be quiet so you can study?

Jamie: There's a shoe shop downstairs, but it's never busy, and there's not much traffic.

Mum: Is it expensive?

Jamie: Two hundred pounds a week, but there are five of us, so that's forty pounds each, which isn't bad.

Mum: Good. Does the flat have a nice kitchen?

Jamie: Well, the fridge is old and the cooker's a bit small, but that doesn't matter – we can't cook! Can I still use your washing machine, Mum, because there isn't one there?

Mum: Of course. When will you move?
Jamie: On Saturday.
Mum: If you can wait until the next day, Dad and I will help you, so you're ready for classes on Monday.
Jamie: OK. Thanks, Mum!

Question 1

One. Which boy is Peter?

Girl: You've got a lot of photographs of your family. Who's this one of?
Boy: They're my cousins.
Girl: So which one is Peter, the one you're always talking about? This one here?
Boy: That's right. He's standing in the middle because the other two weren't speaking to each other that day.

[pause]

Question 2

Two. Which day will they go to the cinema?

Boy: I'd love to see that film about the boy who learns to fly. I think I'll go on Thursday. Do you want to come too?
Girl: I can't that night – I'm going to play tennis with Dave. How about Tuesday . . . or if not, Wednesday?
Boy: Tuesday night is fine. I can't on Wednesday. I'll see you outside the cinema at seven then.
Girl: OK!

[pause]

[pause]

Question 3 Three. What are they going to do on Saturday?

Boy: Come to the beach on Saturday.

Girl: I'd like to, but I must finish some work for the History lesson on Monday.

Boy: Haven't you heard? There are no classes on Monday because of the football match.

Girl: Oh great! I'll go with you then. My next History lesson isn't until Friday.

Question 4 Four. Where does Paul live?

Boy: I'm going to Paul's house to watch a video. He's living in our street now.

Woman: In the house that was for sale? Number thirty-two?

Boy: The one next to it, thirty-three. And Kevin from school is coming to live here too, at number thirty-one.

Woman: All your friends in the same street . . . I'll never see you!

Question 5 Five. Where are they going to put the computer?

Boy: Can I have the new computer in my bedroom, Mum?

Woman: It's for all the family to use, so we really need it downstairs. What about putting it in the kitchen?

Boy: It gets very hot in there. The living room is nicer.

Woman: Well, it's noisy when the television is on, but we can try it there.

[pause]

Janet: Hi, Sue. How are you feeling?

Sue: A bit better, thanks, Janet. Tell me about Emma's birthday party at the weekend. What did you wear?

Janet: My long skirt, as usual. Emma looked great. One of her presents was a sweater with gold flowers on the front, and she wore that.

Sue: I suppose Mike was there in that suit he always wears.

Janet: He was in jeans – but they were black and he looked great.

Sue: Was he with Michelle? She wanted to wear my white jacket, but it was too small.

Janet: She had on a blue Chinese dress, and Rachel was wearing blue too.

Sue: I know, the blouse with the silver buttons – I've seen her in it before. It looks lovely with her silver shoes.

Janet: Jason came straight from work, so he'd still got on that T-shirt he wears at the restaurant. Even in winter he never wears a sweater.

Sue: Well, the girls all had nice clothes anyway. Let's hope I can come to the next party.

Maria: Hi, Zak, this is Maria. I got a message about your sports bag but I didn't understand it.

Zak: Thanks for phoning, Maria. I'm still in hospital, so can you get my sports bag from school? It's blue, not black and white like my school bag.

Maria: OK. What size is it?

Zak: It's quite large and it's a good bag. I only bought it a few weeks ago, but it needs a wash!

Maria: Where is it?

Zak: Well, I had it on the sports field with me, but Tim took it to the classroom after my accident. I left it there when they brought me to hospital.

Maria: Is there anything inside it?

Zak: Only my school uniform. I'm wearing my watch, and I never carry money in it.

Maria: OK. Shall I bring it to the hospital after school?

Zak: I'm going home this afternoon. Can you take it there this evening? I'll need it for tomorrow morning.

Maria: Sure. How did you hurt yourself anyway?

Zak: It was after football. We were running back to the changing rooms when I fell.

Maria: Oh dear!

Question 1

One. What are the boys going to do?

Boy: Let's go fishing. You never want to play football unless there's a lot of people. And it's too hot to play tennis, isn't it?
Friend: I don't think so. If we play in the park, we can go and get a drink in the café there afterwards.
Boy: Well, all right . . . but I don't want to play for long.
Friend: OK. It'll be fun, you'll see, and fishing is boring anyway.

Question 2

Two. Which tent does the girl choose?

Man: This tent's very nice – it's big enough to stand up in.
Girl: But I need one that I can carry.
Man: This round one's for three people, and not too heavy. And this one here is for two people, so it's even lighter.
Girl: Oh, that'll be best. I'm travelling alone but the extra space will be nice.

Question 3 Three. Which one is Ruth's bike?

Girl: I'm taking your bike to the library, Ruth. Is that all right?
Friend: Fine. You can use the bag on the back to put your books in.
Girl: Yours has got a water bottle too, hasn't it? I don't want to take the wrong one.
Friend: That's right.

Question 4 Four. What does Sarah's dad do?

Boy: Are your mum and dad both doctors, Sarah? I saw them in the hospital together yesterday.
Girl: Only my mum is. My dad was a cook, but he works for the hospital now. He drives an ambulance.
Boy: That's nice for them, to work in the same place.
Girl: Yes, my dad is much happier now.

Question 5 Five. Which picture is the woman asking about?

Woman: You have some lovely pictures for sale. Can you tell me who painted the one in your window? It's very good.
Man: The oil painting of the Swiss mountains?
Woman: That's beautiful, but I meant the one below it.
Man: Oh, the summer flowers – that's by George Anderson. Look, there's a picture of him here in this art magazine.

[pause]

Boy: I really like your new room, Kerri. It's so big.
Kerri: I know. There's even space for my computer. I'm going to put it on the desk.
Boy: Great idea! Shall I put these books on the shelf?
Kerri: They're dictionaries. Leave them on the floor near the desk – I use them all the time.
Boy: OK. Now, what about your plant? It'll look nice on this table.
Kerri: Hmm, it should be by the window. Can you put it on this big cupboard? Be careful – it's heavy!
Boy: OK.
Kerri: I'd like the lamp near my bed, but there's no room.
Boy: Well, let's move this small cupboard, and then it can go on the table, like this.
Kerri: Great! And throw me that pillow, please. It should be on the sofa – I don't want it on the bed.
Boy: Fine. And why have you still got this old toy bear, Kerri?
Kerri: I don't know. It's always been on my bed. It can go on the shelf now. Is that everything?
Boy: Yes.

Now listen to the conversation.

Sarah: Hi, Jim. I like your walking shoes. I haven't seen any like them in England before.
Jim: They're Italian, Sarah. I got them for my holiday in Austria last month.
Sarah: I need some like them, because I'm going to go there too.
Jim: Not many shops sell them. I got mine at the market, but they may have some at the new supermarket.
Sarah: How much were they?
Jim: I think they usually cost sixty-eight pounds, but mine were only forty-eight – so I paid twenty pounds less. I was really pleased.
Sarah: I'll get some this afternoon. Is there anything else special I should take?
Jim: Well, pack a hat, because the sun can be strong in the mountains. I took a sweater and a jacket, but I never needed them.

Sarah: Anything else?
Jim: Take lots of T-shirts, one for each day you're going to go walking.
Sarah: That's five days of my week's holiday. And what about taking a phone?
Jim: Well, there'll be one in your hotel, if you want to call home. But take yours, because then you can call someone if you get lost in the mountains.
Sarah: Thanks, Jim.

Man: About thirty.
Woman: That's not many.
Man: No, but more than last time.

[pause]

The answer is thirty, so there is a tick in box C.
Now we are ready to start. Look at question one.

[pause]

Question 1 One. What must the man turn off?

Woman: Let's go or we'll be late. Did you turn off the lights upstairs?
Man: Yes, but wait a minute – I can hear the radio in the kitchen.
Woman: Oh dear. That's the television. I was watching the news. Can you go and turn it off and I'll start the car?
Man: OK.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[pause]

Question 2 Two. Where's the girl's pen?

Girl: Where's my blue pen? I'm sure I put it in my bag.
Boy: Oh, sorry. I used it to do my homework and I left it on the table in the kitchen.
Girl: I can't see it.
Boy: Oh, I know, it's by the phone – I used it again to take a message and forgot to put it back in your bag. I'll get it for you.

[pause]

Now listen again.

Question 3 Three. What will the boy do this evening?

Woman: Are you going to practise your guitar with your friends here this evening?
Boy: Matthew's playing in a football match tonight so we're going to do it tomorrow.
Woman: Will you wash the car for me then? It's very dirty.
Boy: Sorry, Mum, I'm going to go and watch Matthew play. I'll do the car for you at the weekend.

Question 4 Four. What animals did they see on their holiday?

Man: Did you see any monkeys when you were on holiday in Kenya?
Woman: Lots of them! But we weren't so lucky with the lions.
Man: Oh, that's a pity! What about elephants?
Woman: Not this time, but we're going back next year so maybe we'll see some elephants then.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[pause]

Question 5 Five. What does the man want to buy?

Man: Do you think this sweater will look nice with my jacket?
Woman: The colour isn't quite right. What about that lovely blue shirt over there?
Man: It is nice, but I've got lots of shirts already. I need something warm to wear under my jacket.
Woman: Well, let's look in another shop then.

Listen to David and Eva talking about a school art lesson. Where did they and their friends go to draw their pictures? For questions 6–10, write a letter, A–H, next to each person. You will hear the conversation twice.

David: I really enjoyed the art lesson yesterday, Eva.

Eva: Me too, David. I liked going into the city to draw different places. Is this your picture of the museum?

David: Yes. What did you draw?

Eva: I couldn't decide between the castle and the market. In the end, I did a drawing of people buying vegetables. Do you know what Luke drew?

David: Yes, I met him in a café after the lesson. His picture was of some people in the park having a picnic.

Eva: I know Mary loves drawing water. Did she go to the river?

David: She went to the sports centre and drew some children having a swimming lesson. What about Patrick?

Eva: We were walking to the market together but then he saw someone cleaning windows in the bank and he stopped to draw that.

David: Cristina is the best artist. I saw her in Bridge Street sitting at a table having a drink. She was drawing a waiter talking to a customer. The picture looked really good.

Now listen to the conversation.

Man: Hello, Dawn, I haven't seen you for weeks.

Dawn: Well, last month I went to California for a concert.

Man: How did you get the concert ticket?

Dawn: My computer wasn't working, so I couldn't use the internet, and the post takes too long, so I called the ticket office and booked one that way.

Man: Really? Was your plane ticket expensive?

Dawn: Well, most people pay three hundred and fifty pounds, but my student ticket was only two hundred and thirty pounds. Even flights booked on the internet cost three hundred pounds.

Man: Great! Did you stay in a student hotel?

Dawn: I was so lucky! My mother's old schoolfriend let me use her apartment. That was nicer than going to a student place or a campsite.

Man: Tell me about the concert.

Dawn: Well, one group didn't come so it finished an hour early. That made me angry! But the music was great and very loud – I loved it!

Man: Did you go to the beach?

Dawn: Well, it was a long bus trip to get there so I only went once. Anyway, I spent most days buying clothes.

Man: It all sounds great!

This is the Cambridge Key English Test. Paper 2: Listening. Test number two.
There are five parts to the test: Parts One, Two, Three, Four and Five.
We will now stop for a moment before we start the test. Please ask any questions now because you must not speak during the test.

[pause]

PART 1

Now look at the instructions for Part One.

[pause]

You will hear five short conversations. You will hear each conversation twice. There is one question for each conversation. For questions 1–5, put a tick under the right answer.
Here is an example:
How many people were at the meeting?

Woman: Were there many people at the meeting?
Man: About thirty.
Woman: That's not many.
Man: No, but more than last time.

[pause]

The answer is thirty, so there is a tick in box C.
Now we are ready to start. Look at question one.

[pause]

Question 1

One. Which day is the man's appointment?

Man: I'd like to make an appointment to see Dr Owen tomorrow morning, please.
Woman: That's Thursday. He's not free at all tomorrow. What about Friday afternoon? If not, it will have to be Monday morning.
Man: I can't come any afternoon. I suppose I'll have to have the morning appointment then.
Woman: OK, we'll see you at nine. What's your . . .

Question 2

Two. What is the woman going to eat?

Man: I'm going to have chicken and salad. What would you like?
Woman: Um, the soup looks good, but the weather's a bit too warm for anything hot.
Man: Why don't you have sandwiches?
Woman: They don't look very nice. I think I'll have the same as you.

Question 3 Three. Which train will the woman take?

Woman: When is the next train to Ashford?
Man: I'm afraid you're just too late for the eleven thirty. The next one is twelve forty-five, but you'll have to change trains. The two fifteen is quicker because it goes straight to Ashford.
Woman: I don't mind changing trains – I'll have a return ticket, please.
Man: There you are.

Question 4 Four. How much did the man pay for the camera?

Man: I've bought a new camera.
Woman: It looks expensive. Cameras like that cost about a hundred and fifty pounds, don't they?
Man: This was a hundred and seventy-five pounds but the man in the shop took fifteen pounds off the price because it was in the shop window and there was no box for it.
Woman: A hundred and sixty pounds is still a lot of money. I hope it takes good pictures!

Question 5 Five. Which race did the girl win?

Girl: Were you at the sports competition on Saturday?
Boy: Yes. I saw you come first in your bicycle race. But your best sport is swimming, isn't it?
Girl: Yes – but I was second in that. Next year I'm going to try running in the eight hundred metres too.
Boy: Wow! You are good at sports!

Listen to Rosie talking to a friend about places for a party. What is the problem with each place? For questions 6–10, write a letter, A–H, next to each place. You will hear the conversation twice.

[pause]

Man: Have you found a room for your birthday party yet, Rosie?
Rosie: Yes, at the University Hotel. It's old but the room's nice and big.
Man: Did you look at any other places?
Rosie: Yes, five! And there was something wrong with all of them!
Man: Why didn't you like Brown's Café?
Rosie: I loved it but they're putting in a new kitchen so they won't be open for two months.
Man: Oh. And the Rivers Hotel? It was very cold when I went there last year.
Rosie: It's quite warm now but it's not very clean!
Man: Pity! What about the Bridge Restaurant? Or is it too dark there?
Rosie: No, but the problem is none of their rooms is free on my birthday.
Man: And it's expensive.
Rosie: Not really, but the Garden House is.
Man: Oh yes, I know! I had a great dinner party at the Opera Café last week.
Rosie: It's fine for a dinner but it's not big enough for a party.
Man: So, the University Hotel it is then?
Rosie: Yes.

[pause]

Now listen to the conversation.

Joe: Hello. I'd like some information about French courses, please.
Woman: Certainly. Beginners classes are on Wednesdays, other classes are on Mondays or Fridays.
Joe: I'm a beginner and I'm going to France on holiday. I want to speak to people in shops and read information in museums and other places.
Woman: Do 'French for Tourists' then. It'll be better than our Business class and you want more than French Conversation.

Joe: Great. I can only come in the evening.

Woman: Fine, it starts at half past six, there's a break at quarter past seven and you go on until half past eight.

Joe: Is it a big class?

Woman: We never have fewer than nine students or more than fifteen and . . . let me see, there are fourteen at the moment, so with you, the class will be full.

Joe: OK. What about the coursebook?

Woman: You'll get that in the first class and a special notebook. Bring a dictionary – that's always useful.

Joe: Fine. Oh, how much is the course?

Woman: It's a hundred and seventy pounds for people from outside the city, but it's twenty-five pounds less, or a hundred and forty-five pounds, if you live here.

Joe: Oh, I do.

Woman: Good. So let me just take your name . . .

Man: Hello, Diana. I've just got this information about some new evening courses. On Monday evenings, they've got some guitar classes.

Diana: I'm busy on Mondays. What can you do on Tuesdays?

Man: Well, there's a course to teach you how to make easy meals from different parts of the world. The teacher's Terry Wood. He's in the restaurant business.

Diana: That sounds good. What about Wednesdays?

Man: That class is about the cinema in Italy and France.

Diana: Oh, I'd like that. Is there a course for you – something on business perhaps?

Man: Well, on Thursdays, there's one looking at different companies around the world. If you do it, you spend a lot of time on the college computers, which is good.

Diana: Oh.

Man: There's another interesting course on Friday. You learn about the moon and all the different stars.

Diana: Really? Is there anything on Saturday?

Man: Yes, then you can learn about the lives and work of the world's greatest painters.

Now listen to the conversation.

Girl: Good morning. Can I book a coach trip to Edinburgh?

Man: Yes, there are two every day, morning and afternoon.

Girl: Tomorrow morning, please. It's my free day. How much is it?

Man: It's nine pounds for adults, five for children, and seven for students.

Girl: That's good. I'm at the university. Here's the money and my student card.

Man: Thanks. Here's your ticket.

Girl: Where can I catch the coach?

Man: In Bridge Street or outside the Grand Hotel, or there's a stop at the library if you want to wait there.

Girl: Good idea, I'll do that. What time does it leave?

Man: It leaves Bridge Street at quarter to nine and gets to you at five to nine. It takes ten minutes going through town.

Girl: Is there time to see the castle in Edinburgh?

Man: Yes, we go there after the cathedral. We don't visit the shops or museums, I'm afraid.

Girl: Fine. How long is the trip?

Man: The journey there and back is about two and a quarter hours and you spend two hours in Edinburgh. So that's four hours and fifteen minutes. You'll be back by lunchtime.

Girl: Great!

Ben's wife: You've packed so many clothes, Ben!

Ben: Well, it is a business trip – and the weather will be different everywhere I go.

Ben's wife: I suppose on Sunday you'll travel in your jeans.

Ben: Yes. Then on Monday I'm going to meet the company boss, so I'll need my suit then. I can't wear jeans.

Ben's wife: What's happening on Tuesday?

Ben: I'm visiting a factory in the south, so I've packed these grey trousers. They're light and I won't need a jacket – it'll be thirty-five degrees!

Ben's wife: Oh! Then you're in the mountains on Wednesday.

Ben: Yes. A jacket won't be warm enough. I've got my coat for that day.

Ben's wife: Are you taking a sweater as well?

Ben: There isn't room in the suitcase. On Thursday I'll be by the sea, so I'm taking my swimming shorts.

Ben's wife: And what about Friday?

Ben: I'm having lunch with some colleagues. I'll wear that blue shirt you gave me. Look, here it is, under the suit.

Girl: Hi Duncan. How was your tennis course at the weekend?

Duncan: Well, I was actually there for five days, not two.

Girl: Oh! Was the hotel nice?

Duncan: Beautiful! We were high up in the mountains. We looked down on the lake, where we swam every morning, and across to the town on the other side.

Girl: Was the teacher good?

Duncan: Excellent. He's worked here in England for ages but he was born in Canada, so he speaks French and English.

Girl: I'd like to do the course. Was it very expensive?

Duncan: Um, the full price in the summer is two hundred and sixty-five pounds, but it only cost me two hundred and five pounds because I'm a student. In the autumn it's less – a hundred and eighty-five pounds.

Girl: Hmm. Did you have to buy anything special?

Duncan: I already had tennis clothes, and the hotel had racquets and balls, but I got some new shoes because my old tennis ones were too small.

Girl: What did you do in the evenings?

Duncan: Sometimes we watched videos of tennis matches, but on the last night we danced and sang songs in the hotel garden. That was great!

Amy: Are we nearly ready for Sally's party, James? Chris is making the cake, of course.

James: I know, it's going to be amazing! What are you doing Amy?

Amy: I've found a nice room above a restaurant and I'm booking it tomorrow. There's space for fifty guests so we'll be fine. And what about you, James? Are you getting the present?

James: I'm no good at choosing presents, Amy! I'm going to call all Sally's friends and ask them to come to the party. Oh, and I spoke to Claire yesterday.

Amy: What's she doing? If she's free, she can put up some balloons.

James: She's thinking about the music, actually. I know Tom usually plans the music, but this time he's bringing juice and lemonade. There was a big discount at the supermarket so he got lots.

Amy: Excellent! So, that just leaves Jane.

James: She's getting a pair of earrings we can all give Sally for her birthday.

Jessica: Hi Frank. Are you coming to the dance class at eight o'clock this evening?

Frank: Hi Jessica. Yes, I finish work at half past seven, but I need to be home by nine. How long is the class?

Jessica: Oh don't worry. The class is forty-five minutes long, not an hour. Some people stay later to do half an hour extra exercise, but you don't have to.

Frank: OK. What do I need to bring?

Jessica: Just wear comfortable sports clothes. You can leave your trainers at home, because the teacher doesn't want us to wear shoes. And bring lots to drink.

Frank: I'm not very fit. Is that a problem?

Jessica: No, there are people of all ages there and lots of them aren't very fit. But tell the teacher if you have never done dance classes before.

Frank: Are the classes expensive?

Jessica: The price has just changed from five pounds to six pounds. It's still a good price, though, because other classes at the sports centre cost eight pounds.

Frank: OK, shall I come to your house at half past seven?

Jessica: I'm going straight from college. There's a café in the sports centre so let's meet there.

Frank: OK, see you later.

Question 3 Three. Where will the man get off the bus?

Man: I'm going to the college. Where should I get off the bus?

Woman: There's a stop by the supermarket and another next to the park. They're both near the college.

Man: I've got plenty of time, so the stop by the park is best. I can go for a walk first before I go to the college.

Woman: OK, I'll tell you when we get there.

Boy: Can I borrow these three books, please?

Woman: Let me see. You have already borrowed six books and you can't borrow more than eight.

Boy: That's OK. I have two books to return as well.

Woman: OK, please return those books first before you borrow any more.

Woman: Mark, does your brother still work at that expensive hotel?

Mark: He's still there but he's not a receptionist any more.

Woman: Really? Why not? He was really good at it!

Mark: I know! He's a waiter at the moment, and he hopes to be a chef one day, because he really loves cooking.

[pause]

Emily: Did you have a good weekend, John? I heard you went on a sailing trip.

John: It was too expensive, so I just went fishing. I saw Pete on his bike a lot. He went all the way to the beach! What did you do, Emily?

Emily: I played tennis with my brother. I wanted to play basketball, but I couldn't find anyone to play with.

John: Why didn't you ask Jenny? Oh no, that's right, she was busy at the park. There was a skateboarding competition.

Emily: I hope she won a prize. Did you hear about Joe? He broke his leg playing football!

John: Oh no, that will stop him going swimming with me next weekend!

Emily: Are you going to the beach? I'll come with you – I love it there.

John: OK, we can ask Andy as well. He played a lot of table-tennis this weekend, but he says he wants to do something outside next weekend.

Emily: Great, I'll ask him if he wants to come. We can go to East Beach.

Suzy: A new clothes shop opened in the town last week. I went there yesterday and I'm going back again today!

Woman: Do you mean the one near your college, Suzy?

Suzy: That's been there a long time, in fact they're opening another one in the shopping centre. The one I'm talking about is across the road from the newsagent's.

Woman: What does it sell?

Suzy: It sells shoes and boots as well as clothes. The only thing missing is bags!

Woman: What time does it open?

Suzy: It's normally open from ten 'til six, but it stays open until eight p.m. on a Thursday.

Woman: So, is it open every day of the week? I'd like to go on Tuesday.

Suzy: That's fine. The only day it's closed at the moment is Monday, but it will open every day if it's popular enough.

Woman: Oh, OK. I'm looking for some work. Do they need any staff?

Suzy: Yes, they need shop assistants. The sign in the window says, if you are interested, go in and talk to the manager. Don't phone, because they're very busy.

Woman: Oh great, I'll just write that down. Thanks, Suzy.

This is the Cambridge English: Key, Test Three. There are five parts to the test. Parts One, Two, Three, Four and Five. We will now stop for a moment before we start the test. Please ask any questions now because you must NOT speak during the test.

[pause]

PART 1 Now, look at the instructions for Part One.

[pause]

You will hear five short conversations. You will hear each conversation twice. There is one question for each conversation. For questions 1 to 5, put a tick under the right answer.
Here is an example:
How many people were at the meeting?

Woman: Were there many people at the meeting?

Man: About thirty.

Woman: That's not many.

Man: No, but more than last time.

[pause]

The answer is C.

Now we are ready to start. Look at question one.

[pause]

Question 1 One. What instrument is Edward learning to play?

Woman: Do you want to come to a piano concert with me this evening, Edward?

Edward: I'd like to, Aunt Lucy, but I can't. I've got my music lesson.

Woman: Oh, OK. I hear you're still learning the guitar. It's a pity you stopped learning the piano.

Edward: It was so hard. I really want to play the drums, but Mum thinks they're too noisy.

Question 2 Two. What will Anna have for breakfast today?

Man: Morning, Anna. What would you like for breakfast? Some cereal and fruit?

Anna: I have that every day. Can I have an omelette today?

Man: Sorry – I've just eaten the last egg. Do you want some bread and jam instead?

Anna: Well OK, I suppose so. Maybe I can have an omelette tomorrow.

Question 4 Four. What does Mandy's brother do?

Man: Hello Mandy! I saw your brother at the university yesterday. He was talking to the receptionist. Is he still studying there?

Mandy: He finished studying last year and they asked him to teach some classes.

Man: That's interesting. Is he enjoying it?

Mandy: He loves it!

Question 5 Five. Who is coming to stay this weekend?

Boy: Mum, can my friend Josh come and stay this weekend?

Woman: There won't be space, I'm sorry. Auntie Susie's coming with her baby. And you'll want to spend some time with your new cousin.

Boy: OK. You're right. What about next weekend?

Woman: That'll be fine. Grandma's coming but that's not a problem.

[pause]

Man: Sally, let's look on the Internet and see if there are any free places for you and Emma to do that computer course one day next week.

Sally: OK, Dad. Here's the information. Let's try Monday ...

Man: They've got three places then, so that's possible.

Sally: Tuesday will be better. Emma works on Mondays. Oh dear, the course is full that day.

Man: What about Wednesday? I'm free then so I can drive you there.

Sally: Let's see. It says seven places are taken and there are five left.

Man: Good. Let's ask Emma if that's OK.

Sally: Let me just check the other days first. So, Thursday ...

Man: Only one left and you need two places. So that's no good. Are you busy on Friday?

Sally: Not until seven. Oh. They've only got room for two more students.

Man: You must decide quickly or it may be full. Oh look. There are courses on Saturday too, in smaller groups of six.

Sally: And there is space for four more people then. I'll see what Emma thinks.

[pause]

Now listen to the conversation.

Stephen: This soup is amazing, Jenny. Do you use fresh tomatoes to make it?

Jenny: No, Stephen. I just use a can of tomatoes. Some people think roast tomatoes are best, but that's too much hard work for me.

Stephen: Who taught you how to make it?

Jenny: My aunt's friend gave the instructions to my mother, who changed them a bit, then taught me.

Stephen: It's not too thin, is it?

Jenny: That's because I don't use much water. At first, I used four cups, then three, but I think two is best really.

Stephen: So, what else is in it?

Jenny: Some butter, an onion, the tomatoes, salt and pepper, and to make it really nice, a cup of milk. It's much cheaper than cream, you know.

Stephen: Mmm. How long does it take to make?

Jenny: No longer than twenty minutes. You fry the onion for five minutes, add everything else, then boil for about ten.

Stephen: So, what are we having for the main course?

Jenny: Well, we're having fruit cake for dessert, and for main course we've got pasta. I wanted to do lemon chicken, but I didn't have time.

Stephen: Lovely!

Boy: Hi Gemma. How was France?

Gemma: The hotel was a bit small but the weather was great.

Boy: You're always going away.

Gemma: Well, my dad's a journalist, so we travel a lot.

Boy: What did you like most about Italy?

Gemma: The shopping! My mum bought me a really cool swimming costume there!

Boy: Where else have you been?

Gemma: Mexico …

Boy: Wow!

Gemma: We had some amazing meals there. I enjoyed that more than being on the beach!

Boy: And you've visited India. You told us that in Geography class.

Gemma: Yes. My mum's cousin is a tennis coach – he works in a hotel there.

Boy: Is that where you stayed?

Gemma: Yes, but then we visited the countryside in the north. I loved being there. But it was a bit too hot for me.

Boy: Oh …

Gemma: I've been to Australia too! We visited a famous zoo. That was the best part of the trip. Dad had to write an article about it.

Boy: Ha … I'd like to visit Canada.

Gemma: I've been there. The mountains are beautiful, but I loved being at our hotel most. It was wonderful.

Boy: You're so lucky!

Tony: You know my after-school science club, Lisa? There's a competition with another school, and I'm in the team!

Lisa: Well done! When is it?

Tony: The club meets on Monday, but the competition is on Wednesday. We're going to practise on Tuesday.

Lisa: Can I come and watch the competition?

Tony: Yes, but it's not at the school – it's at the university, in the building near the town hall.

Lisa: So, how will you get there?

Tony: It's too far to walk, so we'll take the bus. The underground is quicker, but it's expensive.

Lisa: I know. So, is it a quiz?

Tony: Yes. It'll take about forty-five minutes for five questions on five subjects – that's twenty-five questions. There's a fifteen minute break in the middle.

Lisa: What subjects are you hoping for?

Tony: I'm not great at biology! I enjoy physics the most. But I think this competition will have lots of questions on chemistry.

Lisa: Is there a prize?

Tony: Yes. First prize is cinema tickets for everyone in the team. Much better than a box of chocolates. And even if we don't win, we can all keep our special T-shirts.

Lisa: Cool! Good luck!

Tony: Thanks!
